GENERAL INFORMATION

Conditions of Sale and Disclaimer of Warranties

We recommend you read carefully the Conditions of Sale and Disclaimer of Warranties printed in this catalog.

Important Notice regarding Motorcars:

Some of the motorcars offered in this sale are being offered with a Bill of Sale only. Please refer to the Conditions of Sale for further information and limitations regarding certificates of title and the registrability of motorcars offered at auction.

Admission to Preview and Auction

All Bonhams & Butterfields sales are open to the public. Please bring your catalog to the sale as entry is by catalog only. Each catalog allows two people entry on the preview and sale days. Further copies of the catalog can be purchased at the sale venue. Bonhams & Butterfields has the right at its sole discretion without assigning any reason therefore to refuse admission to its premises or attendance at any of its sales by any person.

Buyer's Premium and Sales Tax

The hammer price will be subject to a buyer's premium, for MOTOR VEHICLE property the premium is 17% on the first $100,000 of the bid (hammer) price and 10% of any amount by which the bid price exceeds $100,000. For Memorabilia & Other Non-Motor Vehicle Property, the premium is 20% on the first $500,000 of the bid (hammer) price and 12% thereafter.

For payments made entirely in cash or cash equivalent, a reduced premium rate will apply, as set forth in the Conditions of Sale. Additionally, buyers are required to pay any applicable import duty, sales or user tax, as the case may be.

Bidder Registration

In order to bid at a Bonhams & Butterfields sale you will need to register to bid. This can be done by completing a bidder registration form such as the one at the back of this catalog. If you are not known to Bonhams & Butterfields, you may be asked to supply a bank reference or other suitable reference when you register. You may wish to pre-arrange suitable check or credit approval, and we recommend you speak with Martin Romero at Bonhams Cashier office in San Francisco or with Paul Atterton at Bonhams' head office in London.

Reserves

The seller may place a reserve on its property which is the minimum hammer price the seller is prepared to accept for a lot. This figure is confidential.

Estimates

These are an indication of where we feel the levels of bidding will reach exclusive of the buyer's premium and tax; however, lots may achieve prices higher or lower than the published estimates. Where 'refer department' is stated please contact one of the specialists for the latest up-to-date estimate.

Bidding

The auctioneer will open the bidding below the low estimate and usually proceed in increments of around 10% of the bidding price. The auctioneer may vary the bidding increments and may split or reject a bid at his or her discretion. At Bonhams & Butterfields, you can bid in many ways: in person, via absentee bid or over the phone. Absentee bids can be submitted in person, online, via fax or via email. By bidding at auction, whether in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone or other means, the buyer or bidder agrees to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. We assume no responsibility for failure to execute bids for any reason whatsoever.

Absentee Bids

Bonhams & Butterfields can execute absentee bids when instructed. Lots will be bought as inexpensively as is allowed by other bids and reserves. Please ensure you send your absentee bid to Bonhams & Butterfields in good time prior to the sale. If a bid is faxed, it should be sent to Bonhams & Butterfields at +1 (415) 861 8951 or to Bonhams & Butterfields at the Petersen Automotive Museum at +1 (323) 932 9257 on or after October 22nd.

Telephone Bids

If you are unable to attend the sale and require additional flexibility over an absentee bid, Bonhams & Butterfields is pleased to offer a telephone bidding facility. Should you wish to bid by telephone, please contact Bonhams & Butterfields Client Services Department for further information.
